Anchor: Basketball now, we haven't seen or heard much from Bobby Cremins since the Cougars season came to an end two months ago. Bobby likes to get in the r&r but he does always have time for a good cause, and Saturday Cremins hosted the Healthy Hoops campaign for the fourth year in a row. Some of his players even stopped by. Now, while we were there we talked to Coach about the big change at the Citadel. Ed Conroy's gone. Chuck Driessell, here to stay.

Bobby: That's all part of the game. And I think, you know, young men understand that. And again, Ed Conroy did a great job here and we'll all be pulling for him. We'll be watching him at Tulane and, you know, life goes on.

Anchor: Coach would also tell me he was surprised to hear about Oliver Purnell leaving Clemson. He says he's looking forward to catching up with the former Tiger coach to hear exactly what happened. Another guy I had a chance to catch up with yesterday, Tony White, Jr. Next week he graduates and he's already looking toward the future and that future still does include basketball. Tony says he's spoken with Cougar Alums Dontaye Draper and Jermaine Johnson about playing in Europe and he's starting to line some things up for a career overseas.

Tony: I'm just looking at it as a new challenge for me. I'm always a person that's willing to take on different challenges, whether it be good or bad. But I'm excited, I'm really excited.
