Anchor: College of Charleston Head Coach, Bobby Cremins, doesn't owe anyone anything in the off-season. The guy works hard. He does deserve some r&r but as we know, Bobby's not the type of guy that likes to rest. Yesterday, Cremins hosted the Healthy Hoops campaign for the fourth year in a row. Some of his players even stopped by to help him out. While we were there we talked to Coach about the big change at the Citadel. Ed Conroy's gone. Chuck Driesell here to stay.

Bobby: That's all part of the game. And I think, you know, young men understand that. And again, Ed Conroy did a great job here and we'll all be pulling for him. We'll be watching him at Tulane and, you know, life goes on.

Anchor: Cremins would also tell me he was surprised to hear about Oliver Purnell leaving Clemson. He says he's looking forward to catching up with the former Clemson coach to find out exactly what happened. Another guy we were able to catch up with yesterday, Tony White, Jr. Next week he graduates and he's looking ahead to the future and that future does include basketball. Tony says he's spoken to Cougar Alums Dontaye Draper and Jermaine Johnson about playing in Europe and he's looking ahead to starting a career overseas.
