

Date: May 20, 2010

Time: 6:00 PM Newscast

Station: WPDE 15, Florence-Myrtle Beach, SC

Anchor: Managing asthma through proper nutrition and exercise is the goal of the Healthy Hoops program, and they're in our Carolina Spotlight tonight. Saturday, 68 children took part in the Healthy Hoops Pee Dee Challenge at South Florence High School. The program uses basketball to teach kids and their families how deal with asthma. Area coaches provided specialized instruction and the event was sponsored by Select Health of South Carolina. To learn more, head to your website CarolinaLive.com.